Lawrence

What They Want

Left hand, side pocket.
Right arm, akimbo and relaxed
Head up, gaze steady
Now you're ready so you
Stroll in, survey them
Your world. They're all invited guests
Feel out how to play them
And remember this
You're giving them what they want, Zabozoo-bee
Giving them what they want, an adventure all their own
Giving what they want, like they're in a movie
And never forget what they want is...

Freddy

Great Big Stuff

I thought I had a real gift,
That penny ante grift
But Freddy's gettin ready now to give his life a lift
I'm tired of be-in' a chump
I wanna be like Trump
Two hundred pounds of caviar in one gigantic lump
Give me Great Big Stuff!
This is how I gotta live
Give me Great Big Stuff!
Uh -uh no alternative
Great Big Stuff!
I want my silver spoon
Don't need it right now but I better get it soon.

Andre

Like Zis, Like Zat

Like Zis, the moon, as round as a balloon
Suspended like a bauble in the sky
Like Zat, a tune that wafts above the dune
And sweetly flutters like a butterfly.
If ze past were plus parfait
We'd have met another day when
When we both were young and gay. And thin
But the present's rather tense
So I think it makes some sense
For us both to give up. Give in.
Like Zat, ze sky, a shooting star toes by
A message you and I cannot dismiss
So I'm wishing for a dose of being nice and close
Like zis, like zat, like zis.
