

WE'VE GOT MAGIC TO DO

By Jose Rincon, Executive Director

With my first Lyric Board of Directors retreat on the books, I write this feeling inspired by the passion and thoughtful insight our board members bring to their stewardship of this organization. Lyric Theatre Company is in good hands and the future looks bright.

The concept of information sharing was a theme throughout the retreat, looking at Lyric's mechanisms for communication both within the organization and with our community partners. As we continue to settle into the Lyric Creative Space, I am excited to work with our technology committee, and explore ways to streamline how we communicate across all constituencies.

And in the spirit of community partnerships, I am delighted to share that Lyric recently received a grant from The Reddus Foundation in support of the 2018 LyricKids summer camps. We are most grateful to The Reddus Foundation for its investment in Lyric and the children and families we serve.

Speaking of LyricKids camps, now is the perfect time to register your children and grandchildren so they can join in the fun. You'll find more information on the 2018 LyricKids camps in this issue of The Spotlight. Happy reading!

GREEN UP VERMONT AND DIRTY ROTTEN SCOUNDRELS

By Jose Rincon

Lyric is proud to have Green Up Vermont as our philanthropic partner for Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. Green Up's mission is to promote the stewardship of Vermont's natural landscape and waterways, and the livability of our communities by involving people in Green Up Day and raising public awareness about the benefits of a litter-free environment. Always the first Saturday in May, Green Up Day is an annual statewide event when over 22,000 volunteers come together to remove litter from Vermont's roadsides and public spaces. Mark your calendars for Green Up Day 2018 on Saturday, May 5!

TUTT CHALLENGE COMPLETED!

STILL TIME FOR ROOM RECOGNITION FOR THE CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

By Syndi Zook

On December 16, Lyric held an Open House and Ribbon Cutting to show off Phase One of our incredible renovations. We revealed the design by France and Frederic Silberman of S&H Design Company for our recognition plaques. The plaques are colorful and modern and recognize many Lyric friends and supporters as well as honor some individuals who are no longer with us. Though many rooms are “spoken for” there is still time to add your name to a plaque as we move into the final phase of renovations. For a gift of $1,000 or more you can add your name to The Set Shop, Costume Shop, Board Room or Rehearsal Hall. If you have given a previous gift and would like to bring that amount up to $1,000 that would be wonderful too. If this is something that interests you, please contact me at syndi@lyrictheatrevt.org. Thank you to all who have contributed and continue to participate in fulfilling this goal.

SPOTLIGHT FACILITIES SPOT

By Doug Viehmann, Facilities Chair

The Lyric Theatre Company Facilities Committee would like to thank all those stalwart volunteers who have put time, talent and dollars into making our new building at 7 Green Tree Drive a home we can all be proud of.

If you missed the opportunity to visit the new building during our open house in December, or during our move from Leroy Avenue back in June, please know that you are welcome to stop in either during business hours 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m., Monday-Friday, or during any evening of the week, Saturday mornings or Sunday afternoons. Though crews will be busily preparing sets, props and costumes for the April production of Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, we are sure that someone will take time to show you the facility. You may even find a new or long-lost friend in the process; things are hoppin’ around here!

While we are enjoying the fruits of our labors, the Facilities Committee is also planning for the next phase of construction. The Board promised that this building would house all of our production work, including rehearsal space. It is our hope that we can make this happen before the Annie team needs rehearsal space.

There will be opportunities for those of you who missed out on the fun and camaraderie of demolition or construction. (It is so-o-o cathartic to tear things apart!) We are building a rehearsal space! Once the contractors are done, volunteers will be needed—painters, cleaners, sewers, chefs, light hangers and anyone who wants to lend a hand applauding the hard work of others. Keep your ears open for calls to lend a hand. Come join the Lyric family in the completion of our new efficient and fun home!

ANNIE...DIRECTOR'S VISION

By Sara McDonald, Artistic Director

On behalf of the entire Annie team, let me express how excited and honored we are to be bringing this classic musical back to the Flynn stage this fall! I am grateful and privileged to be working with an amazing team, including but not limited to, Julianne Nickerson as producer, Belinda Emerson as assistant director, Ian Ferris as assistant to the director, Craig Hilliard as music director, Kim Nowlan Hathaway as choreographer, and Sean Leach as stage manager.

Annie is based on the popular comic strip by Harold Gray, Little Orphan Annie. In 1972, Martin Charnin bought the rights to the comic strip. With Thomas Meehan and Charles Strouse, he created the Broadway musical Annie in 1977. After 2,377 performances, four national tours, and five Broadway Annie's, the musical ended its New York City run in 1983. There have since been several Broadway revivals of the show and numerous professional and amateur productions. Annie is well known for a great musical score that includes such famous songs such as Tomorrow, Easy Street, and I Don't Need Anything But You.

Though people may have not seen a stage production of Annie, the famous 1982 movie version starring Carol Burnett as Hannigan, Tim Curry as Rooster, Bernadette Peters as Lily St. Regis, Aileen Quinn as Annie, and Albert Finney as Daddy Warbucks, remains a classic to this day. It is in this vein that we will tell the story of Annie: a fiery yet charming young orphan determined to find the parents that abandoned her, who comes to stay at the mansion of the cold-hearted billionaire Oliver Warbucks. We will maintain the look and feel of the original Broadway show and 1982 movie, while incorporating some unique staging and movement elements.

Annie is more than a show about an orphan looking for her parents. It embodies the longing we all have to be part of a family, albeit dirt poor or filthy rich. This show is about Annie's and Daddy Warbucks' journey to find what family really means, and it is the story we will bring to life on the Flynn stage. So...be sure to save these dates:

Kick-Off: August 16, 2018

Auditions: August 19-25, 2018

Auditions for Orphan Girls: Sunday, August 19, 2018

Orphan Call-backs: August 20, 2018

Auditions for Adult Roles: August 21, 22, 23, 2018

THANKS TO EXPO VOLUNTEERS

By Pat Boera

Lyric's Winter Cabaret cast reprised their First Night performance at the Vermont 50-Plus and Boomer Expo on February 3. An appreciative audience enjoyed the diverse selection of “Classic Broadway” songs. Special thanks to the artistic team and the eight-member cast.

Sarah Joslin, Mary Lou Lord, Rita Myers, Shari Bergstein, Pam Carter, Stephanie Miner, and Bill Suiter joined me in staffing Lyric's booth, sharing information about Dirty Rotten Scoundrels and Annie. The Savvy Seniors—Ken Wolvington, Richard Hibbert, Bill Suiter, and Audrey Arnold—performed skits about serious topics impacting seniors such as phone scams and identity theft.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO MAKE A PROPOSAL

By Sean Leach

... for Lyric's spring 2019 show! The Show Selection and Evaluation Committee is seeking proposals for spring 2019 and would like a show that would be very popular with our Lyric audiences—ideally one with six performances. This show, coupled with Annie, our fall 2018 show, will provide Lyric with a blockbuster season to help support our new building. The deadline for show proposals is February 28, 2018. Guidelines are stated below. Contact Sean Leach, chair of Lyric's Show Selection and Evaluation Committee, at leachs@aol.com or 363-4599 for more info.

Main Stage Show Proposal Criteria:

- Has not been produced by Lyric in the past ten years
- Has broad-based audience appeal
- Is appropriate for directors, cast and crew available to Lyric
- Has potential for substantial ticket sales
- Has artistic value

Written proposals should include:

- Names and qualifications of the producer, director, choreographer and music director
- Synopsis of show
- History of the show (where and when it has been performed)
- General vision including cast size and mix, special talent needs, and why it should be produced by Lyric
- A preliminary budget (past show budgets are available from the Lyric Office)
- Some general marketing ideas to promote the show
