

PROCLAMATION

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

I come before you as mayor of this fair city,
To proclaim this day as special in our history,
For a decade ago from toil and talent and dreams idyllic,
Was born in Burlington, a theatre called Lyric.

For ten years now this group has striven,
To help us make our lives worth livin',
Through musical plays they bid us take heed,
So we might learn just "How to Succeed."

For ten years now they've been a boon,
And tonight starts the second ten with Lerner and Loewe's Brigadoon.
So I happily proclaim this date, in manner
most splendidic,
A city-wide salute to this tenth anniversary of Lyric.
