

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

"Falling in Love with Lyric"

By Erin Evarts

One of the wonderful things about volunteer organizations is the passion that people have for the work they are doing. As the cold (and often dreary) winter months continue, I'm reminded of the LOVE I have for Lyric. It provided me a place to experiment as a young costumer, offered me creative opportunities, helped to foster my love for theatre arts, it informed my college choice, introduced me to some of my best friends, and almost two years ago gave me the chance to lead. As we approach Valentine's Day, I ask you, what makes you love Lyric? Why are you passionate about this work? In one, two, or three (if you must) words, let us know.

Send the words and phrases that make you love Lyric to lyricvt@gmail.com – subject line: Love Lyric. We want to hear from YOU, audience members, performers, crew, musicians, family, and friends.

SAVE THE DATES
By Erin Evarts

Lyric Theatre's LyricKids Camps will once again happen this year, with safety precautions in place to make sure our youngest members can create and enjoy the arts together! Camps will run the weeks of July 19th and July 26th – stay tuned for camp registration and show announcements.

MUSIC TO YOUR MOUTH

By Rachel Drew

It's probably safe to assume that by this point we're all tired of our own cooking and looking to bust out of a food rut. This Superbowl Sunday, February 7th, you can fulfill all your takeout desires and support Lyric at the same time! From 4-8 p.m., Lyric will receive 33% of all sales at the Shelburne Road location of Chipotle. When you get to checkout, make sure to tell them you are there to support Lyric. You can also order online or through the Chipotle app to save yourself some time and minimize exposure. Just use code BT48FNB in the "promo" box at checkout. Remember, you must use this code or mention the fundraiser in order for Lyric to get credit for the sale. Get your burrito on and enjoy a night off from cooking!

Each individual's strengths are assessed and utilized by the creative team with a strong focus on building confidence and having fun! All team members must have experience with and enthusiasm for children aged 8 to 13 years. Experience in your area of expertise is also required. ## WE WANT YOU!

LYRIC NEEDS YOU!

Can you help? The Production Selection and Futuring Committees have been hard at work developing fresh proposals for Lyric to pursue this year and in the future. We are looking for new and current volunteers to come forward to lead, apprentice, and propose or help with some of these events for this Spring, Summer, and Fall 2021. Ideas we think would be a good fit for Lyric include:

- a drive-in movie sing-a-long weekend
- an outdoor concert series
- a series or single workshop sharing a skill (i.e. set building, theatre makeup, song interpretation, musical editing, etc.)
- a live or streamed one-act festival
- a small streamed musical
- a streamed cabaret series
- a project of your own

All must be done following CDC guidelines. We were able to put on an outdoor concert series, a streamed musical, and an original Christmas streamed film, all without any Covid incidents. Lyric has gone to great lengths to keep all of its staff and volunteers safe and will continue to do so until this pandemic is behind us.

Please consider coming forth to help us put on some more amazing events for Lyric. We are in the position of being able to provide Vermont with a way to enjoy the arts, and we need to keep it going until we can return to our Flynn Mainstage shows. If you are a choreographer, makeup specialist, organizer, musical director, or someone that would like to learn a new skill or 'cut your teeth' on a smaller project, please contact Erin Evarts, Executive Director, at erin@lyrictheatrevt.org or Jane Harissis, Production Selection Chair at vitsivan@aol.com.

DELANO-NULTY SCHOLARSHIP

By Erin Evarts

Lyric is now accepting applications for the 2021 Delano-Nulty Scholarship. For nearly 50 years, Lyric Theatre Company has been part of the dynamic arts community in the area. For the past several years, Lyric Theatre Company has awarded $2,000 to an area high school senior to help support their interest in pursuing an education in the performing arts. This scholarship, The Delano-Nulty Award, honors two of Lyric's founding members - Howard Delano and Polly Nulty. Please go to <https://lyrictheatrevt.org/education/delano-nulty-award/> for all relevant information for 2021 applications. Applications are due no later than Friday May 7th, 2021.

LYRIC MEMBER SHOUT OUT

By Corey Gottfried

There are SOOOOO many wonderful and exceptional people in the Lyric community that there should be a 'shout out' every day of the year to acknowledge and appreciate each one of them. Simply put...I'm talking about each one of 'you.'

But in this moment, I would like to take a time out to do a member 'shout out' to Serena Magnan O'Connell.

Besides being a theatrical 'triple threat' (isn't that enough to get you a decent pat-on-the-back?), she has served on the Board for many years (in particular Membership Chair, and presently also Board Vice Chair), has been a Production Supervisor, has been involved in a number of other production departments, involved in a number of Lyric non-production activities and projects, and last, but definitely not least, Serena is one of a handful of Lyric members who can mix 'sound' for a Lyric show on the Flynn MainStage. And now, something incredibly significant to add to her stunning Lyric resume - Serena was the predominant writer (and producer) of our recent hit production, Miracle On Green Tree Drive. Imagine...Lyric producing and performing an original piece of dramatic work and...making a profit doing it! Oh...the possibilities.

So...in this moment in time...for this member 'shout out'...thankyou, Serena. For being there for Lyric time and time again, for loaning us your many talents and most of all...for just being 'you.' You have made, and continue to make, a positive influence on many people lives, which...is what it's all about. Hugs.

Can you complete The Phantom of the Opera lyrics? The show opened on Broadway in 1988, and, up until the time when the pandemic closed theatres, was still playing to enthusiastic audiences at the Majestic Theatre.

- 1-"___ worth its weight in gold"

BROADWAY SONGS THAT FEATURE TAP NUMBERS

Until we have the opportunity to gaze upon amazing tap numbers in Broadway shows, listening to the music of the numbers themselves will have to do. Tap numbers are sometimes the showstopper number of the show, the time when the choreography can really shine. Is your favorite part of a Broadway show the tap number?

From A Chorus Line's "I Can Do That," to Singin' in the Rain's "Good Morning," these tap numbers will get you in the mood to throw on your tap shoes and try your hand at these dances.

Have a favorite tap Broadway song that we missed? Share it with us on Twitter and we might just add it to the list.

"Forget About the Boy" – Thoroughly Modern Millie

"I Can Do That" – A Chorus Line

"Step in Time" – Mary Poppins

"Cold Feet" – The Drowsy Chaperone

A MESSAGE FROM JAY WAHL:

OPTIMISM AND EXCITEMENT AT THE FLYNN

[EXCERPTED FROM AN EMAIL NEWSLETTER]

As we dive into 2021, we look ahead to joyful times! My name is Jay Wahl, and I'm thrilled to be the newest member of the Flynn family. I just moved here from Philadelphia, and while I bring the spirit of the City of Brotherly Love and Sisterly Affection with me, I can't wait to get to know Vermont and join this magnificent, dynamic community. The Flynn's roots run deep and extend far throughout the region; it is beloved for the magic on its stages, the surprise and delight from our classrooms, and the moments that have brought all of you, and your loved ones, generations of smiles, tears, and laughter.

For all its challenges, the pandemic has also created many opportunities. For example, the Flynn's shift to online classes has opened us up to a nationwide community. People from coast to coast are able to enrich themselves with the help of local Vermont teaching artists. We've also showcased digital stages with several virtual performances such as theater artist Kristina Wong and her zany and biting humor or Jazz pianist Marcus Roberts, who can bring out new shades and tones from those 88 keys.

I look forward to meeting you in person soon, and I can't wait to bask in the glow of the stage lights together as we expand our hearts and minds in the shared wonder of a performance.
