

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Offstage & Backstage

Lyric Theatre Company is powered by volunteers. For every performer you see on stage in a Lyric production, there are at least three other volunteers behind the scenes who helped bring the show to life. Whether you want to share a skill you already have or learn a new one, there is a place for everyone at Lyric.

Below are work times for some of the crews taking The Prom from page to stage. You are welcome to come by the Lyric Creative Space on a drop-in basis—just keep in mind that crews do not necessarily meet during every single listed timeframe, but rarely outside of them until just before performances. Email the listed crew member if you're interested. We can't wait to meet you!
